The Mi'kmaq and Maliseet First Nations in New Brunswick welcome you to visit our communities and join in the celebration of our culture through dance, song, chants, and feasts. The Pow Wows still carry on the tradition of embracing family, friends, and guests each year. There will be an array of vendors with authentic artwork and crafts, traditional clothing and concessions. EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

Powwows normally start on Thursday and Friday with Sunrise Ceremonies at 6 AM, with lighting of the Sacred Fire and vendor set up; Grand Entrance is usually held on Saturday and Sunday at 1 pm.
