New Brunswick Private Career College Graduate Pilot International Candidate Agreement

Project Description:

The Private Career College Graduate Pilot is for international graduates with the skills, education and work experience to contribute to New Brunswick's economy, and who are ready to live and work in New Brunswick permanently. The objective of the pilot is to make available an immigration pathway to international graduates from select one-year and two-year programs of study that lead to careers in priority occupations in Education and Social Development, in Health, in IT and Cybersecurity, in Business Administration, and in Supply Chain and Logistics.

As a Candidate in this pilot, I agree to the following:

To maintain my eligibility as a Candidate in this pilot,

(please check each box to indicate your understanding and agreement):

- I agree that I must respect and meet all milestones listed below, and I understand that failure to meet any milestone could result in my disqualification from consideration or continued participation in this pilot:

Provincial Nomination under the NBPNP

- I understand that I must achieve a minimum score equivalent to Canadian Language Benchmark \(CLB\) 5 in all four language components of an Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC)-approved language test (IELTS (General Training); CELPIP; TEF Canada; TCF) by or before the completion of my program of study.
- I understand that all of the following must be completed within 90 days of the conclusion of my studies:
- I must secure permanent full-time employment with New Brunswick employer willing to support my immigration application, in a qualifying occupation directly related to my program of study; and
- I must submit my application to the New Brunswick Provincial Nominee Program (NBPNP).
- I understand that an invitation to submit an application under the NBPNP does not guarantee my nomination under the program. To be nominated by the Province, I must meet all eligibility factors and selection criteria at the time of my application.
- I understand that if I am then successful in my application and I am granted a NBPNP Nomination Certificate and R204 Work Permit Letter of Support, I must submit my R204 work permit application to IRCC, and I understand that my study permit must still be valid on the day I submit that application.
- I understand that my application for a work permit under the terms of this pilot does not guarantee that my work permit application will be approved.
- I understand that the work permit issued under this pilot is not issued under the Canadian federal Post-graduation Work Permit Program, but rather it is an employer-specific work permit issued under the terms of the NBPNP.
- I understand that if I fail to meet all of the milestones listed above within this 90-day period I may lose my temporary residency status in Canada and my ability to stay in Canada, and I will be disqualified from this pilot.

Permanent Residence Application to IRCC

- I understand that I must submit my application for Canadian permanent residence to IRCC in a timely manner and prior to the expiry of my NBPNP Nomination Certificate.

  - Proof of residence in New Brunswick during the employment period (lease, utility bills, bank information, NB driving license, etc.)

- I understand that if I fail to maintain full-time employment in a qualifying occupation directly related to my field of studies in New Brunswick while my PR application is being processed, my nomination will be rescinded and this pathway to permanent residence will be closed to me.

Immigration Representatives and Consultants

- I understand that I am under no obligation to hire or pay an authorized immigration representative to assist in the preparation of my application(s) for immigration and/or work permit. The Government of Canada and Government of New Brunswick treat everyone equally, whether they use a representative or not. All the forms and information that I need to apply to immigrate to Canada are available for free. If I follow the instructions in the application guide, I can complete the application form and submit it on my own. I know that the Government of New Brunswick is available to assist me if I have questions.
- If I choose to hire an immigration consultant or other agent, that agent must be authorized to provide such services by being one of the following:
  - Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultant who is in good standing with the College of Immigration and Citizenship Consultants (CCIC);
  - Canadian lawyer or paralegal who is in good standing with a Canadian provincial or territorial law society; or
  - Notary who is in good standing with the Chambre des notaires du Québec.
- I understand that I am responsible for all fees and costs related to my IRCC-approved language test; my application under the NBNP; my application for a Work Permit; and my eventual application for Canadian Permanent Residence.
