NOTES ............................................................................................................ 43
When tragedy visits a school, it generally impacts on the lives and experiences of the students, staff, parents and volunteers associated with that building. Sometimes, however, the event is so shocking that it reverberates outside the school and is felt throughout the community and beyond.

On January 12, 2008, seven students from Bathurst High School and a teacher from School District 15 lost their lives when the van they were traveling in collided with another vehicle while returning home from an out-of-town basketball game.

The grief, loss and emotional anguish that emerged from this tragedy caused thousands of New Brunswickers - Anglophone and Francophone - as well as many other Canadians, to stop what they were doing and to reach out to a school and a community that had been shaken to its core. The people of Bathurst experienced the worst of times this past year, but they also experienced the restorative power of friendship, kindness and genuine concern. The healing effort that was mounted following the Bathurst High School tragedy will forever serve as a symbol of the enduring power of community.

Following the tragedy, the School District 15 logo was stylized as follows:

- The banner across the bottom of the logo and the colors (red and black) represent Bathurst High School
- The basketball represents the BHS Phantoms, and in particular, the careful memory of:
  - Javier Acevedo
  - Codey Branch
  - Nathan Cleland
  - Justin Cormier
  - Daniel Hains
  - Nicholas Kelly
  - Nickolas Quinn
- The cello represents Mrs. Elizabeth Lord’s contribution to music education in School District 15 and her love of the strings.
Mission Statement

To have each student develop the attributes needed to be a lifelong learner, to achieve personal fulfillment and to contribute to a productive, just and democratic society.
The Department of Education is responsible for public education (Kindergarten through Grade 12).

The Department of Education is dedicated to providing the best public education system possible where all students have a chance to achieve their academic best and where parents are involved in their child’s education.

Since 1967, the provincial government has had sole responsibility for financing public schools and is committed to equal opportunity for all students. The Minister of Education prescribes curriculum and establishes educational goals and standards.

Serving Canada's only officially bilingual province, New Brunswick's education system offers students the opportunity to learn in both French and English through two parallel but separate education systems. Each linguistic sector of the Department of Education is responsible for its own curriculum and assessment.

The public education system has 14 school districts - five French and nine English. District Education Councils (DECs), consisting of publicly and locally elected members, are responsible for establishing the direction and priorities for the school district and for making decisions as to how the districts and schools are operated.

In 2007-2008, the Department of Education continued its work in creating a culture of excellence and high achievement by providing students with quality learning and greater opportunity to help them reach their full potential.

Council of Ministers of Education, Canada

In September 2007 the Minister of Education for New Brunswick, The Honourable Kelly Lamrock, was elected to serve as Chair of the Council of Ministers of Education, Canada (CMEC) for a term of 2 years.
The Advisory Committee of Deputy Ministers of Education (ACDME), supporting CMEC, was lead and chaired by the New Brunswick Deputy Minister of Education, Anglophone Sector.

During school year 2007 – 2008, under New Brunswick’s leadership, CMEC launched the document LEARN CANADA 2020 -- Quality Lifelong Learning Opportunities for All Canadians which sets the priority areas of the Council and identifies a number of additional key activity areas. Ministers will use this document to enhance Canada’s education systems, learning opportunities and overall education outcomes. Through the Department of Education, the Minister establishes the policy framework and the standards that govern the province’s education system. The Minister is also responsible for the provincial curriculum and assessment framework.

District Education Councils (DECs), consisting of publicly and locally elected members, are responsible for implementing provincial education policy and for establishing the direction and priorities for the school district and for making decisions as to how the districts and schools are operated. DECs, with their superintendent, develop education and expenditure plans, implement programs, services and provincial policies, and establish local policies to best meet the needs of their district.

Information on the individual school districts, including their annual reports, is available by contacting their office.
