New Brunswick Cancer Network's ONCOLOGY EDUCATION DAY 2015 on palliative care and end-of-life care

October 22, 2015 8:00 am to 4:00 pm

Crowne Plaza Lord Beaverbrook Fredericton, NB

The NBCN's Education Day 2015 will focus on palliative care and is based on a regional education model.

This program has been approved by Médecins francophones du Canada for 6 hours of category 1 credits.

Médecins francophones du Canada is an accredited organization recognized by the Collège des médecins du Québec.

The Education Day 2015 is designed to enhance knowledge in cancer care to meet the educational needs of interdisciplinary health professionals.

The Education Day will follow the Education in Palliative and End-of-Life Care – Oncology in Canada (EPEC[™]-O Canada) program.

Topics included are:

- models of comprehensive care;
- loss, grief and bereavement;
- spiritual needs;
- cancer pain management;
- and
- advanced care planning.

As a result of this Education Day participants will have enhanced palliative care knowledge and access to a trainer's tool kit to organize or deliver programs within their respective areas.

Participants will also receive access to an online community of practice sharing.

Registration Deadline: September 25, 2015

Deadline extended to: October 2, 2015

Registration Fee: $50.
