

Should I get screened?

	BREAST	CERVICAL	COLON
WHO	Women aged 50-74 without symptoms or previous breast cancer.	Women aged 21-69 who have ever been sexually active.	Men and women aged 50-74 without symptoms or family history of colon cancer.
TEST	A screening mammogram every two years.	A Pap test once every three years after having three consecutive negative Pap tests.	A simple at-home colon test (FIT- fecal immunochemical test) every two years.
HOW	Schedule an appointment at a local mammography site.	Schedule an appointment with primary health-care provider or local Pap test clinic.	Respond to provincial program invitation.

For more information, speak to your primary health-care provider about screening, visit gnb.ca/health or call 1-844-777-3443