Important Information

Electronic Master Student Financial Assistance Agreement (MSFAA)

If you are eligible to receive student grants and loans and this is your first application, you will receive your Notice of Assessment with a 10-digit MSFAA number and instructions on what to do with the MSFAA number to get your assistance.

The National Student Loans Service Centre (NSLSC) will send you a “Welcome Email” that will provide you with a secure URL through which you will be invited to use your MSFAA number to:

1. Verify your identity by registering your online account with the NSLSC; and
2. Complete your MSFAA where you will be asked to Accept the Terms and Conditions of the agreement.

If you do not receive a “Welcome Email” within three to five business days of receiving your Notice of Assessment, please contact Student Financial Services at 1-800-667-5626.

This two-step process must be completed in order to receive your student financial assistance; therefore, you are required to provide an email address on your application.

To complete the online process you will need to have the following information:

- Your bank account information (Transit, Institution and Account number);
- Your Social Insurance Number (SIN);
- Your 10-digit MSFAA number; and
- Your Date of Birth.

If you have questions about the MSFAA process, please visit studentaid.gnb.ca for more information.

The MSFAA is a multi-year legally binding contract, requiring a one-time signature, that outlines your responsibilities and the terms and conditions of accepting your provincial and federal student grants and/or loans as well as your responsibilities for repayment. By signing the MSFAA, you agree to accept responsibility for all funding you receive from that date forward.

If you have already signed a MSFAA, you do not need to complete the online MSFAA process unless you leave full-time study for two years or establish residency in a new province or territory.
If you are a returning student who does not require a new MSFAA, Student Financial Services will send you a Notice of Assessment and automatically notify the NSLSC if you are entitled to funding.

If your information has changed, please make the necessary updates using your online account at nslsc.ca or by contacting the NSLSC at:

Toll Free Telephone: 1-888-815-4514 (within North America)
800-2-225-2501 (outside North America)
TTY: 1-888-815-4556

Confirmation of Enrolment

Once the NSLSC has confirmation of your MSFAA on file, your educational institution must confirm your enrolment before your student grant and/or loan funds can be issued. For most educational institutions, they will be asked by the NSLSC to confirm your enrolment electronically.

If your educational institution is within Canada and they are not set up to confirm enrolment electronically, the NSLSC will mail a Confirmation of Enrolment (Schedule 2) form to your educational institution and they will return it to the NSLSC.

If your educational institution is outside of Canada, a Confirmation of Enrolment (Schedule 2) form will be sent to your mailing address and you must take it to the registrar’s office at your educational institution. The form must be returned to the NSLSC by you or your educational institution.

Disbursement of Funds

Your educational institution may advise the NSLSC that a portion (or all) of your approved funding is to be paid directly towards your academic fees. Remaining funds will be electronically deposited into the bank account that you provided on your MFSAA. You may experience delays in receiving your funding if information is missing from you or your educational institution. If you have questions regarding your funding disbursement, please contact Student Financial Services.

Once funding has been disbursed, you will receive an email from the NSLSC (info@csnpenslsc.ca) with a subject line of “Important Update: Check your Mailbox”. A message in your secure inbox will provide detailed information on the amount of funding paid to you and your educational institution as well as links to information on how you can track your funding and manage your student loans using your NSLSC online account.
Let’s Get Started!

By completing the application, you are applying to both the Government of Canada and the Government of New Brunswick for student financial assistance. The Information Guide has information about:

• Program eligibility;

When you complete your online MSFAA, you are responsible for reading and understanding it before you sign it. You are responsible for following all of the terms and conditions, most importantly the terms and conditions regarding repaying your loan and any overawards.

If your personal situation changes at any time during your study period, you must contact Student Financial Services to determine what documentation, if any, must be submitted. Your original application will be reviewed, and, if necessary, a reassessment will be completed. Upon reassessment, you may receive more assistance, less assistance, or the same level of assistance. Inform Student Financial Services immediately of the following changes:

• Name;
• Address;
• Marital status or family size;
• Educational Institution, course load, program costs or program length;
• Income, targeted resources, scholarships/bursaries; and
• Parental, partner or dependant information.

An outdated address could delay receiving your money. It is important that your school, the NSLSC, and Student Financial Services have your current address information. When updating your address, ensure you advise all three. You may update your address with Student Financial Services by completing the Change of Address form at studentaid.gnb.ca or by calling 1-800-667-5626 toll-free. You may update your address with the National Student Loans Service Centre using your online account at nslsc.ca, or by calling the NSLSC at 1-888-815-4514.

Ancestry

Indigenous people are those who identify themselves to be First Nations (Status or Non-Status), Inuit, or Métis.

Students who self-identify as Indigenous learners are exempt from making a fixed student contribution. The Post-Secondary Student Support Program (PSSSP) funding provided by Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada is exempt from consideration in the need assessment process.

Information on visible minority status is for statistical purposes.
Students with Permanent Disabilities

Students with a permanent disability are considered full-time students when studying in at least 40% of a full course load. A Request for Program Information form is required to be completed by the post-secondary educational institution you plan to attend to verify the amount of tuition, student fees and book costs associated with the course load which you plan to complete. This form is available at studentaid.gnb.ca. You can ask your educational institution to forward the completed form directly to SFS.

If you are a student with a permanent disability that restricts your physical or mental ability to perform the daily activities necessary to participate fully in post-secondary studies or the labour force, you may be eligible for the Canada Student Grant for Students with Permanent Disabilities (CSG-PD).

A separate application is not necessary, however, to be considered for this grant, you must provide proof of your disability in the form of a Medical Assessment Form completed by a qualified medical assessor. The Medical Assessment Form can be found on the Student Financial Services website at studentaid.gnb.ca.

If you are applying for the CSG-PD on the basis of a learning disability diagnosis, you are required to complete only Section A of the Medical Assessment Form and submit a psychoeducational assessment, completed by a registered psychologist, that is no more than five years old (or completed when the student was 18 years of age or older).

If you are experiencing difficulties in obtaining the required documentation, please contact Student Financial Services at 1-800-667-5626.

If you have previously been approved for funding as a student with a permanent disability by Student Financial Services, you are not required to submit the Medical Assessment Form with subsequent applications.

If you require exceptional education-related services and equipment such as tutors, note-takers, interpreters, braillers or technical aids, you may be eligible to apply for the Canada Student Grant for Services and Equipment for Students with Permanent Disabilities (CSG-PDSE). A separate application is required for this benefit. Applicants for this grant must also apply and qualify for student financial assistance.
Marital Status

All references to “partner” refer to spouse or common-law partner.

Check the Common-law box if you and your partner are:

• in a common-law relationship and claimed (or will claim) your marital status as common-law on your 2019 Income Tax Return;

• currently living common-law and receiving social assistance as a family unit from the Department of Social Development;

• the parents of one or more children, and have physical custody and responsibility for the dependent children who live with you.

If you divorce or separate during your study period, you must notify Student Financial Services in writing. This notification must include the date of separation and supporting third-party documentation (i.e. letter from lawyer or other professional) or a copy of a legal separation agreement.

Married or Common-Law

If you are a married/common-law student, you can choose whether or not to include your partner’s income in your application for financial assistance. If you do provide your partner’s income, you will be assessed for all federally and provincially-funded programs listed in the Information Guide (as applicable). A partner contribution will not be used for the purpose of determining your need for the 2020-2021 academic year.

If you choose not to include your partner’s income, you will be assessed for New Brunswick Student Loan only (up to $140 per week of study).
Applicant Dependents

List all dependants who will be living with you at least 50% of the time, as of the first day of your study period for which you are applying for assistance. If you have more than three dependants to list, attach an extra sheet of paper to the application with their information.

Dependants are any children who are 18 years or younger and are wholly dependent on the parent(s) for support and for whom the parent or the parent’s partner, in law or in fact, have the custody and control.

You may include children over the age of 18 if they are in full-time attendance at a secondary school or at a post-secondary educational institution, and they:

- have never been married or claimed marital status as common-law on an Income Tax Return; and
- do not have any dependant children; and
- have not been out of secondary school for four years (48 months) or more; or
- have not been in the workforce for two periods of 12 consecutive months.

Anyone, other than your partner, claimed on your 2019 Income Tax Return as wholly dependent may also be listed as a dependant.

You must provide a copy of the most recent tax form substantiating Canada Revenue Agency approval of the wholly dependent person.

Children with Permanent Disabilities

If you are a single parent student or a married/common-law student with a dependant 12 years of age or older with a permanent disability, proof of the disability must be sent with your application in order for this dependant to be considered in your eligibility for the Canada Student Grant for Students with Dependents. If you have submitted this documentation with a previous loan application, you are not required to submit it again.

A medical certificate or documentation proving receipt of federal or provincial disability assistance must be provided as proof of a permanent disability for each child over 12 years of age.
Single Students Without Dependents

Single Dependent Student

A student who is single without children and has been out of high school for less than four years or has been in the labour force less than two years (two periods of 12 consecutive months, the two periods need not be consecutive) is considered a single dependent student.

If you are a single dependent student, your parents are expected to make a contribution toward the cost of your post-secondary education. The amount they are expected to contribute depends on their income, the size of your family, and how many children are pursuing post-secondary studies.

If your parents have 2 or more dependant children enrolled in post-secondary studies, the calculated contribution will be divided by the number of children. This will determine their contribution for each child.

If there are two or more dependent students in the family applying for student financial assistance, the applications should be submitted at the same time.

If your sibling is not applying for student financial assistance, you must submit proof of your sibling’s enrolment at a designated post-secondary educational institution in order for them to be considered when determining the expected parental contribution. Provide a letter from their educational institution stating they are in enrolled in full-time studies with the study period start and end dates.

If you are a single dependent student, you can choose whether or not to include your parent’s income in your application for financial assistance. If you do provide your parent’s income, you will be assessed for all federally and provincially-funded programs listed in the Information Guide (as applicable). A parental contribution, if any, will be removed in the calculation of your New Brunswick Student Loan amount. If you choose not to include your parent’s income, you will be assessed for New Brunswick Student Loan only (up to $140 per week of study).
Single Independent Student

A student who is single without children and has been out of high school for four years or more, or has been in the labour force for two periods of 12 consecutive months (the two periods need not be consecutive), is considered a single independent student. Students are considered to be in the labour force if they are working, actively seeking employment, or receiving Employment Insurance benefits.

You are also considered an Independent Student if you are receiving, or have received, financial assistance under Youth Engagement Services (YES) or support from the Department of Social Development under one of the following permanent care support programs:

• Child in Permanent Care: refers to a child under the permanent legal care, control and supervision of the Department of Social Development either by Court order or voluntary agreement between the Department and a child’s parents or guardians.

• Post Guardianship agreement: refers to any child who has been under a guardianship order or agreement, after they reach the age of 19 and up until the age of 24, provided that the young person is enrolled in an educational program.

• Voluntary Care Support agreement: the Department of Social Development may enter into a Voluntary Care Support agreement with a former youth in care. This agreement may be entered with a youth who upon reaching their 19th birthday had a guardianship status left in the care of the Minister and prior to their 21st birthday is accepted by a post-educational institution into a program of full-time studies.

This includes those who were adopted or returned to their birth families after the expiration of a guardianship order/agreement.

You must provide a letter from the Department of Social Development stating that you are receiving, or have received, support under any of the above programs.

A student that is no longer married or in a common-law relationship, or has no parent, guardian, sponsor or other supporting relative due to death or disappearance is also considered a single independent student.

Program Information

To apply for assistance, you must apply for admission as a full-time student to an approved post-secondary program at a designated post-secondary educational institution. While you do not have to be officially accepted into a program of study when you make your application, you need to know the name of the school, the name of the program and the start and end dates of your study period.

All applicants must complete the Program Information section of the application, even if a Request for Program Information form is required.

A Request for Program Information form is required to be completed by your post-secondary educational institution if you are:

- applying as a student with a permanent disability.
- completing a co-op work term as part of your study period.
- studying at the Master or Ph.D. level.
- attending Intersession and/or Summer Session at a university.
- attending any educational institution located outside the Atlantic Provinces.
- attending any private educational institution located outside New Brunswick.

The Request for Program Information form is available at studentaid.gnb.ca and it can be submitted with your application or you can have your educational institution submit it directly. If you are required to submit a Request for Program Information form, failure to do so in a timely manner will result in delays with the assessment of your application.
If we are unable to determine your program of study based on the information you provide, we may request a Request for Program Information form.

If you have questions regarding your program information, please contact Student Financial Services.

Program Name and Specialization

Enter the actual name of the program you will be enrolled in and the specialization/major that corresponds to your program as printed in your institution program calendar.

Length of Study Period

You will not be eligible for assistance if your study period is less than 12 weeks. Your study term start date to end date cannot be more than 52 weeks.

Course Load

Your course load refers to the number of courses or credits you are taking. You are required to enroll in at least 60% of a full course load (40% if you are permanently disabled) to be considered for full-time financial assistance. Your educational institution determines the number of courses or credits that make up 100% course load.

As a general rule, for degree programs:

- 5 courses = 100% course load
- 4 courses = 80% course load
- 3 courses = 60% course load
- 2 courses = 40% course load
- 1 course = 20% course load

Students enrolled in certificate and diploma programs generally take a 100% course load.

Contact your educational institution if you need help determining your course load percentage.

Accommodation

Indicate if you will be living with your parent or partner (as applicable) while you are in classes. Your living situation enables us to determine the living allowance used to calculate your financial need.

Information about the expenses and resources used in your student financial assistance assessment can be found in the How Assistance is Calculated section of the Information Guide.

Educational History

If you are a first-time New Brunswick student financial assistance applicant, provide detailed information for each year you have attended a Post-Secondary Educational Institution as a full-time student.

Complete this section starting with the latest year attended.

Applicant Study Period Resources

You must include the amount showing on lines 15000 and 21000 of your 2019 Income Tax Return. If you have not yet filed your 2019 Income Tax Return, provide the information that you will be reporting on these line numbers when you do file. This must be the exact amount from your line numbers, not an estimate or rounded amount. If it appears that the information provided is not an accurate exact amount, you will be asked to provide tax records for verification which may result in a delay in the assessment your application.

If current year income amount is expected to be significantly lower than the previous year, a review may be requested. Information is detailed at studentaid.gnb.ca under Requesting a Funding Review.

Scholarships/Bursaries

List all scholarships and bursaries you will receive from your educational institution or community organizations including but not limited to entrance scholarships, merit based scholarships, doctoral fellowships, need based scholarships or bursaries, etc. Enter the name, source and dollar value of each scholarship that you will receive for the 2020-2021 academic year.

Other Targeted Resources

Include only funding you will receive that is provided to help with specific educational costs. The funds could be paid directly to the educational institution (for instance, to cover tuition), or they could be paid directly to you. A training allowance from an employer is an example of a targeted resource.

Do not include the following resources:

- Post-Secondary Student Support Program (PSSSP) funding provided by Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada;
- Registered Education Savings Plans (RESP), Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP), Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP)
- Savings, investments, tax free savings accounts, any other assets;
- Employment or self employment income including tips or gratuities;
- Social Assistance benefits;
- Employment Insurance (NB-EI Connect Program) benefits;
- CPP/QPP benefits
- Canada Child Benefit;

Training and Skills Development

This program ensures case managed individuals have access to funding for education and training to assist them in their return to work. A participant must have an Employment Action Plan that has been developed with an Employment Counselor of the department who will determine eligibility based on program criteria. For more information see Training and skills development under Quick Links at studentaid.gnb.ca.

If you require additional space for your employment history, attach an extra sheet of paper to the application with this information.
Applicant Declaration and Consent

Read all parts of this section and make sure you understand your obligations and consents. Your loan application will not be processed unless you sign both parts in ink and indicate date signed.

Be aware that it is a legal document that is being signed. It is an offence under The Canada Student Financial Assistance Act, the Canada Student Loans Act and The Post-Secondary Student Financial Assistance Act to knowingly give false or misleading information on this application.

Appendix A – Authorization to Disclose Information – Optional

This section of the application is optional. Complete this section if you want to authorize another person to communicate with the Department of Post-Secondary Education, Training and Labour on your behalf about your student financial assistance file (this application, related appendices, or assessment details).

The Right to Information and Protection of Privacy Act regulates all personal information compiled by the Government of New Brunswick. This Act protects the privacy of individuals by regulating the collection, use and disclosure of personal information held by the provincial government. To protect your privacy, we will not release information to a third party such as your parents or partner unless we receive your written consent through an Authorization to Disclose Information.
Appendix B - Parents, Guardians, or Sponsors of Dependent Applicants

All references to “parents” apply either to parents, step-parents, legal guardians, or official sponsors.

If you are a single dependent student, this section of the application must be completed by you and your parents in order to be considered for all federal and provincial funding programs available. If you are applying for New Brunswick Student Loan only, the information in this section is not required.

Completion of this Appendix does not mean the parent(s) are co-signing for your student loans. You as the applicant are solely responsible for repaying the student loans issued.

If you would like your parents to be able to contact Student Financial Services about your application, Appendix A - Authorization to Disclose Information must be completed.

Parental Information

In a two-parent family, Parent 1 and Parent 2 information is to be answered separately by each parent. It does not matter which parent completes the Parent #1 and Parent #2 sections. In a one-parent family, respond to the questions in the Parent #1 section.

If your parents are separated or divorced, the parent with whom you normally reside or who provides for the majority of your living costs must complete this section. If your custodial parent remarried or was in a common-law relationship before you turned 18 years of age, or if your step-parent has legally adopted you, your step-parent must complete this section as the second parent.

Parental Income

Your parent’s income for the 2019 tax year is used to calculate the required parental contribution and evaluate your eligibility for assistance.

2019 Income

Enter the exact amounts showing on the indicated line numbers of your parent’s 2019 Income Tax Return(s). These cannot be estimates or rounded amounts. If it appears that the amounts provided are not accurate and exact, you will be asked to provide tax records for verification which may result in a delay in processing your application.
If your parent(s) did not file an income tax return for 2019, indicate the information that they will be reporting on these line numbers.

Enter “0” if there is no amount reported/to be reported for a particular line number.

Reduced Income

If current year income amount is expected to be significantly lower than the previous year, a review may be requested. Information is detailed at studentaid.gnb.ca under Requesting a Funding Review.

Parental Dependents

Do not include the applicant in the number of dependent children.

For the purposes of determining family size in assessing the parental contribution, a dependent child is:

- A child, including an adopted child, a step-child or a wholly dependent person;
- 18 years or younger;
- Wholly dependent on their parents for support; and
- In the custody and control of their parent and parent’s partner, in law or in fact.

A child over the age of 18 is also considered a dependant if he or she is in full-time attendance at a secondary school or a post-secondary educational institution; and:

- Has never been married or claimed marital status as common-law on an Income Tax Return; and
- Does not have any dependent children; and
- Has not been out of secondary school for four years (48 months) or more; or
- Has not been in the workforce for two periods of 12 consecutive months.

Anyone, other than a partner, claimed on your parent’s 2019 Income Tax Return as wholly dependent may also be listed as a dependant.

A copy of the most recent tax form substantiating Canada Revenue Agency approval of the wholly dependent person must be provided.
Declaration by Parent(s), Guardian(s), or Step-Parent(s)

Parents must read the declaration and consent and make sure that what is being signed is understood. A signature is required from each parent for which information was provided. A parent with no income must also sign the declaration. Be aware that it is a legal document that is being signed. It is an offence under The Canada Student Financial Assistance Act, the Canada Student Loans Act and The Post-Secondary Student Financial Assistance Act to knowingly give false or misleading information on this application.

The Right to Information and Protection of Privacy Act regulates all personal information compiled by the Government of New Brunswick. This Act protects the privacy of individuals by regulating the collection, use and disclosure of personal information held by the provincial government.
Appendix C – Partner of Married/Common-Law Applicants

To be classified as married/common-law, you may be legally married or have claimed your marital status as common-law on an Income Tax Return. All references to “partner” refer to your spouse or common-law partner.

Completion of this appendix does not mean your partner is co-signing for your student loans. You the applicant are solely responsible for repaying the student loans issued.

Make sure your partner reviews the information you have entered. Your partner is responsible for reading and signing the declaration. If you would like your partner to be able to contact the Student Financial Services about your application, Appendix A - Authorization to Disclose Information must be completed.
