

2019-2020

Student Financial Assistance for Full-Time Study

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

for

-consideration of all federal and provincial funding programs available-

Please read the Information Guide at studentaid.gnb.ca to get updated information on the funding programs and how eligibility is determined. To complete your online or printable application, you will need:

- your Social Insurance Number (SIN)
- the amount showing on line 150 of your 2018 Income Tax Return (when completing the application, if you have not yet filed your 2018 tax return, provide the information that you will reporting on line 150)
- if you belong to the Dependent Student Category, you will need:
 - the SIN of your parent(s) and any sibling(s) enrolled in post-secondary studies
 - specific line number amounts from your parent(s) 2018 Income Tax Return
- if you belong to the Married / Common-Law Student Category, you will need:
 - your partner's SIN and the SIN of any children enrolled in post-secondary studies
 - the amount showing on line 150 of your partner's 2018 Income Tax Return
- if you belong to the Single Parent Student Category, you will need:
 - the SIN of any children enrolled in post-secondary studies
- an email address where information can be sent to you on a regular basis
- your mailing address where you want to receive notices and letters from Student Financial Services
- your permanent address if it's different from your mailing address
- the date (year/month/day) you arrived in Canada and the date (year/month/day) you arrived in New Brunswick if you are a Permanent Resident or a Protected Person of Canada
- information about the educational institution you plan to attend:
 - name and telephone number
 - exact name of your program of study
 - start and end dates of your program of study (year/month/day)
 - start and end dates of your co-op work term or practicum (year/month/day), if applicable
- the percentage of the full-time course load you will be taking (you can contact your educational institution if you need help determining your course load percentage)

 Please refer to the 2019-2020 Information Guide for detailed information on the application process. **