

Canadian Adult Education Credential (CAEC) Request for Prior Learning Assessment Recognition New Brunswick

High school level courses as well as GED tests may be used towards the Canadian Adult Education Credential to be exempt from certain subject tests. To have one or more courses considered, please consult the NB CAEC PLAR Guidelines. If you have completed suitable courses, or have passed GED tests, list them below, and provide documentation proving those marks.

Candidate Name:
Phone Number:	Email:
Province/Territory of Residence:	Date of Birth:
Address:
STREET (NUMBER AND NAME)	APARTMENT NUMBER / PO BOX
CITY	POSTAL CODE	PROVINCE/TERRITORY
Testing Centre Code:	Testing Centre Name:
Candidate's Signature:	Date:

CAEC Subject	Course name being considered	School/Institution	Year of Achievement	Mark
Reading
Writing
Mathematics
Social Studies
Science

Submit this form and required supporting documents to: caec-ccea@gnb.ca. For questions, please call (506) 444-2525.

Notes:

- All courses being submitted for consideration must have proof of marks (either transcript, historical grades, or report card) showing the grade as final. Courses must have a final mark, or a credit granted.
- Courses with ENR ¹ or CIC ¹ cannot be considered.
- Modified, Adjusted, or Individualized courses cannot be considered.
- Not all 5 tests can be exempted. At least one CAEC test must be written.