

Acceptable Proof of New Brunswick Residency (at least two required)

Note: Documents used from this list must reflect the address being used for the driver's licence / Identification card.

- Residency documents which are issued monthly (such as utility bills, pay stubs etc.) must not be older than 2 months. Other documents must always be the most recently issued version.
- Any residency documents must contain name of applicant OR legal guardian; immediate family member which includes parent, husband, wife - including common-law & same sex marriage; step-parent, grandfather, grandmother, son, daughter, brother, sister, step brother, step sister who live at the same residence.
- Utility Bills, one of each is acceptable, however we can't accept 2 months of the same bill. Bundled services count as one document. Online billing customers must download the bill and print it.

Utility bills include (cannot be 2 from the same service provider): Phone, Internet, Electricity, Cable/Satellite, Home heating fuel invoice (Oil, Natural Gas, Propane etc.), Water/Sewer

NB Property Tax Bill (current year)

Banking document that includes Financial Institution's name and address (or stamped by them) with client's name and address. Only 1 of the following is acceptable:

- Snapshot of client's profile
- Account Statement (saving, chequing, line of credit, credit card)
- Cancelled or void cheque
- Direct deposit application stamped by the Financial Institution

Mortgage documents or Land Title document

Benefit confirmation issued by Federal Government:

- Child Care Benefit
- EI
- GST/HST credit
- Canada Pension Plan

Income Taxes (current year – documents must be issued by CRA)

Social Assistance Benefit Confirmation (Including NB Social Development Health care card)

Residential Lease (must be completed and signed by landlord & tenant)

Employment Confirmation or pay stub

Insurance Policy (Home and auto) or pink liability insurance card

Firearms possession card - Accompanying letter showing name & address

Declaration from a Guarantor form