Assessment

Applications will be evaluated against the following eligibility and assessment criteria:

The project benefits

- The proposed project benefits, and their value to the province / region.

The project viability

- The likelihood that the proposed project can be realized / completed as proposed.

The project sustainability

- The probabilities that the project or the intended effects of the project can be maintained once it has been completed.

The applicant viability

- The state of the operational and financial stability of the applicant.

The applicant capacity

- The management and financial capacity of the client to meet costs associated with the delivery of the project.

All proposal submitted for assessment are subject to applicable environmental assessment requirements and to the Government of New Brunswick's duty to consult policy where applicable.

The amount of detail and supporting evidence to be provided in an application will be relative to the size, complexity and funding amount requested. Due to limited resources however, not all projects meeting eligibility criteria will necessarily be approved.

Proposal Process

All proposals will be submitted through the RDC application form and include a business case detailing all relevant information required in the eligibility and assessment criteria.

- All applicants will submit proposals for funding directly to the Regional Development Corporation.
- If applicable, RDC will obtain a sector review from the appropriate department when receiving a request directly from the client.
- Where a submission is deemed sufficiently detailed and in accordance with the eligibility requirements, RDC will review for consideration.
- Initiatives will be approved by the President of RDC.
- Any initiatives that require major investments over $500,000 will be submitted to Executive Council for approval.

Level and Type of Assistance

Through the TDF, the Regional Development Corporation may assist in the form of a non-repayable contributions at the following levels:

- up to 100% to provincial government departments in support of strategic initiatives that have sector-wide impact;
- Up to 50 % provincial contribution toward eligible expenditures to non-profit, municipalities, Regional Service Commissions and First Nation governments;
- Up to 20 % provincial contribution (with exceptions up to 35% under extenuating circumstances) toward eligible expenditures in all other projects;
- Funding commitments for individual initiatives will not exceed 3 fiscal years.

Pilot projects may be funded for a maximum of 3 years after which the proponent must demonstrate sustainability. Proponents must also work with government to identify a lead department that will be responsible for any further funding if applicable.

This funding program will not provide incremental assistance to, or replace, existing programs delivered by provincial government and funding will be done on a reimbursement basis after the applicant has submitted a claim for eligible costs complete with invoices and proof of payment.

The payment of any funding is subject to there being an appropriation for the fiscal year in which the payment is to be made. RDC may reduce or cancel the funding if departmental funding levels are changed by the Legislative Assembly during the term of this funding program.

Payment Procedures

All applicants will be subject to the following to receive any payments related to a project:

- Applicants must complete, sign and forward a claim form including copies of all pertinent documentation relating to the project for reimbursement of expenditures.
- Cash payments will not be eligible for reimbursement.
- Donations of materials, equipment, or services are not eligible to be included in the claim as they are not actual costs incurred (paid out) on the project. Only actual costs incurred are eligible for reimbursement.
- Expenditures can be reimbursed in installments, or one lump sum at the end of the project.
- Payments will be made by direct deposit service only.

Reporting Requirements

The Regional Development Corporation will measure outcomes / objectives and results will be published in the annual report. RDC will require all applicants to submit appropriate documentation to support all investments made under the Total Development Fund.

Supporting documentation may be in the form of:

- outcome report including metrics;
- financial report;
- audited financial statements;
- invoices;
- proof of payments;
- legal agreements; and/or
- any other necessary documentation.
