

Social Development

---

What is the Public Housing Program?

This program is offered by the Department of Social Development (SD). The Public Housing Program assists households in need obtain affordable, adequate and suitable rental accommodation by subsidizing rents in publicly owned rental dwellings.

Who qualifies?

Subsidized rental accommodations are provided to low income rental households whose income is below the established "income ceilings" which vary by household size and by areas within the province. Tenants are chosen on demonstrated need.

How does it work?

Tenants qualifying for assistance through the Public Housing Program will have their rents reduced to 30% of the adjusted household income.
