Trying to come up with a new way to raise funds? Be creative!

Try using some of the ideas outlined here for a fun and original way to raise the cash you need!

Hold Casual Friday in the workplace. Collect donations in order to participate. Ask local businesses to join in and "compete" with each other.

Hold a "chuck-a-puck" at a hockey game. Spectators can purchase a hockey puck with a number on it and record their name on a list. During intermission, the pucks are thrown at center ice. The thrower of the puck that comes closest to the target wins a prize.

Hold a silent auction on prizes such as memberships and rentals.

Go door to door with magazine subscriptions.

Sell raffle tickets on various prizes.

Host a yard sale and sell donated items.

Sell citrus fruit by the bag or box.

Order boxes of potatoes, apples, blueberries, (or other produce) from local farmers. Resell the product for a profit.

Conduct coat check at local events such as dances, plays, school concerts, and sports events.

Sell seasonal flowers:
Christmas
Poinsettias,
Valentine's Day
Roses, Easter
Lilies.

Hold a rock-a-thon (rocking chairs), skip-a-thon, skate-a-thon or other marathon event at a local mall and have sponsors and on-the-spot donations.

Organize a bottle drive. Go door to door collecting bottles then return for the deposit (best if done right after a holiday).

Hold 50/50 draws at games and dances and other public events.

Sell garbage bags or plastic food wrap.

Bag groceries at the grocery store or load shoppers' cars for tips on a busy day.
