Consent Statements

Please add my resume to the corporate resume database to be considered for another ABC position for which I am qualified. I understand my personal information will be used or disclosed for the purposes of determining my eligibility for appointment to various agencies, boards and commissions.

I would like to receive electronic emails from the Government of New Brunswick regarding opportunities and updates on agencies, boards and commissions in the future.

Personal information collected herein is done for the purpose of making appointments to various agencies, boards, and commissions; and is collected under the statutory authority of these various agencies, boards, and commissions. Questions about this collection should be directed to the ABC Unit of the Executive Council Office at (506) 444-5292 or PO Box 6000, Fredericton, NB, E3B 5H1 or visit us at <https://qnb.ca/abc>.*

Conflict of Interest *

Conflicts of interest arise when there is conflict between the private interests and the official responsibilities of an individual in a position of trust. In other words, situations where a board member may derive personal benefits for themselves, friends, or families from actions or decisions made through their board involvement. Conflicts of interest can be real or perceived. For example, board members should not:

- directly or indirectly benefit from a transaction where they can influence decisions made by the ABC;
- use their position to solicit clients for business purposes;
- accept fees, gifts, gratuities or other benefits which could reasonably be considered to influence their/board decisions; and/or
- make use of any privileged information to their personal gain or the gain of others.

To ensure ABCs are governed in the public interest, potential appointees are asked to disclose any obligation, commitment, relationship or interest that could conflict or may be perceived to conflict with their duties to or interests of the agency, board or commission to which they are seeking appointment.

Please complete:

I have reviewed the information above and do not have or foresee any conflicts to disclose.

If you feel there may be potential for conflict please provide a brief description of the nature and extent of the conflict for review.
Please note that this does not automatically disqualify you from the application process.*

I understand that any information that proves to be false may disqualify me for any appointment. I hereby certify that all statements made in this application and other documents provided by are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that should investigation at any time disclose misrepresentation or falsification of a material fact, that my application may be rejected. I also consent to my references being contacted.
